APPENDIX.

The miscellaneous records in the first volume of Town Records were not made in consecutive order, notably licenses for inn keepers and taverners, and for retailers of wines and spirituous liquors; also entries of sheep-marks. A few specimens of each of these are printed as samples, and the names of the persons entering sheep marks, and receiving licenses, are given chronologically. The marriages by Rev. Timothy Walker, and the intentions of marriages, occupy but a few pages of the volume, and are as follows:

Marriages returned by the Revd Mr Timothy Walker on the Twenty Third Day of September 1735 vizt
